

Create your own "Pop Fantastique"

Name: _____

Date: _____

Directions: You have now learned about Berlioz's "Symphony Fantastique". This piece was five movements long, and each movement represented a different piece of a story. The story was really about his life. Your task: to find five songs to create your own "Pop Fantastique". These songs must sound different from one another. You will create a story to go with your selection of songs, and you should also include some of the lyrics. Please make sure song choices are appropriate.
